
RACE DISCRIMINATION · EMPLOYMENT LAW · TEXAS
SAME WORK.
LESS PAY.
Same job, same results as your coworker. But they make $15,000 more than you.
THE LANGE
FIRM

SOUND FAMILIAR?

THE PATTERN.

You asked about raises. Budget is tight.

Less experienced coworkers keep getting promoted.

Your colleague doing the same job makes $15,000 more.

$15K
MORE. FOR THE SAME WORK.
Pay discrimination based on race is illegal in Texas.
The gap in your paycheck may be the evidence you need.

KNOW THIS

NO SMOKING GUN NEEDED.

A pattern of unequal treatment can be enough to build a strong case in Texas.

RED FLAGS

SIGNS YOU MAY HAVE A CLAIM.

- → Paid less than less experienced coworkers.
- → Promotions consistently going to others.
- → Raises denied without clear explanation.
